

Greetings!

Nowruz piruz! Happy new year! It is our first day of spring and the ancient new year celebration beloved in Iran, Afghanistan, and many other countries.

Do you know how our children celebrate?

This year, for the first time, I learned how to grow sabzeh (sprouts) for a haft seen (traditional Nowruz decoration) The process reminds me of how our programs deliver resources for bodies to grow strong and our social workers spread encouragement like seeds to sprout in young minds.

Nowruz gift supports children and their families who value, like we do, curiosity, studying hard, and the courage needed to build a better future. Families in Iran will receive urgently needed food for healthy sustenance for the little seeds to flourish. Through our Nowruz Fund, families in Afghanistan receive needed school tuition payments, supplies, and basic materials so sprouts thrive.

Together, let's foster what is growing in these young minds during the Nowruz season.

Nowruz Mobarak!
